- Storage is billed on Total length.
- Boat placement, positioning and moving are at the discretion of Broadwater Marine Australia Inc.
- Boat will not touch other boats or walls and will overhang the bow or stern.
- Access around the boat will be limited due to the positioning of other boats.
- All service and storage invoices must be paid prior to the boat's launch.
- If you require your boat to be plugged in after launch, please provide the proper cords, adaptors, etc.
- Broadwater Marine must have a key or lock combination for boat access and operation.
- Boats will be kept locked at the owner's request.
- Owners are responsible for having their boats properly insured while at the Broadwater Marine Facility.
- Owners are responsible for stowing all their gear, boat equipment and personal property.
- Admittance to the facility is only during business hours and only after checking in at the office.
- Ground area around the boat and trailer may not be used for storage of any kind.
- No major repairs (motor overhauls, hull painting, or structural changes) can be performed on the premises. No hazardous waste shall be introduced into the Broadwater Marine facility.
- Boats may not be refueled while in the boat storage yard.
- Staying on a boat overnight while in the storage place is prohibited.
- Broadwater Marine reserves the right to terminate this agreement at any time.
- Use of water or electricity shall not be contiguous and is based on the understanding that no boater will abuse the use of these utilities.
- During climate weather, it is recommended that boat owners should check their boat's overall condition to assure it is not filling up with water.
- All conditions of this agreement are binding upon the respective parties, their successors, and assigns.

This agreement is a granting use of space only. Broadwater Marine Inc. shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage of whatever kind or nature to the boat, its contents, or equipment including the consequence of any power interruption, application and renewal of insurance is not a responsibility of Broadwater Marine, Inc.
